

SACRED SITES

cycle directly to legendary ruins in the Peloponnese

October 15-26, 2019

Tour destinations: Athens, Nafplio, Vytina, Olympia, Lampeia, Kalavryta

DESCRIPTION

Sacred Sites on this tour: Ancient Corinth, Ancient Nemea, Ancient Mycenae, Epidavros Theatre, Ancient Olympia

Overnight Destinations: Athens, Nafplio, Vytina, Olympia, Lampeia, Kalavryta

Rural cycling prevails. Tour highlights include 3rd century BC Epidavros Theatre, once the largest healing center in the ancient world and Ancient Mycenae where King Agamemnon ruled who launched the Trojan War. Athletic competitions were held in four cities; on this tour you visit three of them — Olympia, Nemea, and Isthmia, but regrettably no time for Ancient Delphi.

Lonely Planet named the Peloponnese peninsula the #1 European destination in 2016. Outside magazine named our Sacred Sites tour one of the “6 Best Cycling Tours in Europe.”

After a vigorous bike tour, take the Hydra Island Escape for three nights of pure R & R.

ITINERARY

2019 Sacred Sites 11 nights, 12 days

Day 1 Athens

Arrival to Athens, one of the world's oldest capital cities. The welcome dinner takes place in the Plaka, the center of historic central Athens.

Day 2 Athens

Temple to Temple ride. Start at the Temple of Athena (Acropolis) to take the car-free bike path to the coast and follow the coastal road to the tip of the Attica peninsula to the Temple of Poseidon. 70 km, 43 miles Lunch at a fish taverna. Vehicle transfer back to Athens. Riders do not enter Acropolis (it would take too much time) but do enter the small Temple of Poseidon site with its magnificent 360 degree views of the Aegean . Look for Lord Byron's signature carved in the marble Temple column.

Day 3 Corinth — Kalamaki Beach

At Perama port we catch the 20 minute ferry to Salamina island where the important Battle of Salamis took place that changed the course of Western Civilization. Cycle across the island to catch a ten minute ferry back to the mainland, hugging the mostly flat coastline to Corinth Canal for terrific photo ops. A final stop is Isthmia, one of four sites where athletic competitions were held in ancient times. 62 km, 38 miles

Day 4 Nafplio

Cycle to three archaeology sites in one day! Bike to Ancient Corinth where St. Paul preached and then to Ancient Nemea, site of one of four Olympic-style games. Finally, cycle to Ancient Mycenae for private with professional guide. After the tour, bike to Nafplio, the prettiest little city in the Peloponnese and modern's Greece's first capital. 82.70 km, 51 miles

Day 5 Nafplio

Bike to the healing site of Epidavros Theatre for a private tour with professional guide, 26.80km, 16.60 miles. On the return route, a detour to lovely Vivari beach with lunch at seaside taverna, swimming in sea. 45.15 km, 28 miles. Before dinner, learn about Greek wines in a wine tasting session with a local professional.

Day 6 Dimitsana

Today is the hardest day of the tour, biking deep up into the Arcadia Mountains, a region brimming with tradition, history and mythology. 107.60 km, 66.80 miles

Day 7 Dimitsana

After yesterday's long haul, today is a rest day. Option to bike to the amazing St. John the Baptist Monastery, 30 km, 18 miles, hike a dirt path 4 km in the Lousios Gorge to visit the "Secret School" and Philosopho Monastery. Lunch in cute little Stemnitsa village.

Day 8 Olympia

From Dimitsana to Olympia there's a thrilling descent hugging the Lousios Gorge. You are now leaving the Arcadia Mountains to lower elevations. The biking route is flatter but with several hills too. At the end, before you know it, you are cycling past the ancient Olympic Stadium. Pre-dinner honey tasting at a honey farm 76 km, 50 miles

Day 9 Lampeia

Morning tour with professional guide at ancient Olympia whose Temple of Zeus was one of the Seven Wonders of the Ancient World. Afternoon biking we return to the mountains, traditional villages, goat herds, gushing water sources. Lunch is at Foloji, a rare oak forest inhabited by centaurs! 54km, 33.50 miles

Day 10 Kalavrita

Bike Lampeia to Kalavrita, cycling a mountain ridge with lunch at a special river side taverna with fresh trout. After a guided tour inside the fascinating Cave of the Lakes, a steep 15 km climb ensues approaching Kalavrita. Don't worry your hotel has spa services, including massages. 76.50 km, 47.50 miles

Day 11 Piraeus

Leaving Kalavrita cycle down the mountain and along the flat coast hugging the sea all the way to Loutraki Beach 115 km, 71 miles. Vehicle transfer to Piraeus port with a farewell dinner at one of the loveliest marinas on the Athenian coastline.

Day 12 depart
